SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

This vision of Christ, in his glory, was to strengthen the 3 principal Apostles to face the trials to their faith. For this reason, it is retold to us today, to encourage us to persevere in our Lenten mortification. It reminds us that, the Easter bells will be ringing out their message of joy once more.

This is a truth we all forget, namely, that we cannot and do not get to heaven in a limousine. Our time on earth is the chance given us by our heavenly Father to earn an eternal reward. We could never earn it, but God accepts the little we can do and provides the balance of his infinite mercy.

Death, which means a total separation from all we possessed and cherished in this world, is waiting around the corner for all of us. Who can face it more calmly and confidently—the man who is firmly convinced that it is the gateway to a new life, and who has done his best to earn admission through that gateway, or the man who has acted all his life as if death did not exist for him, and who has done everything to have the gate to the new life shut forever in his face?

Let the thought of the Transfiguration encourage each one of us today, to do the little God demands of us, so when we pass out of this life, we may see Christ in his glory, ready to welcome us into his everlasting kingdom.

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

This gospel, about the Samaritan woman, is exceptionally rich. Every time we read it we are passionately moved by that intense conversation between Jesus and the Samaritan woman. The living water, the gift of the Holy Spirit, can only be given by the Lord Jesus whom the Father sent into the world to give to all men and women eternal life, that is, never ending happiness. The Samaritan woman went to a well which was deep, but limited, whereas unlimited was her thirst for happiness and love. The woman represents the existential dissatisfaction of one who does not find what he seeks". How often man seeks the infinite, the eternal, well-being...but sadly continues to seek it in a well, in a reality, the earthly reality, which is unable to contain it.

On our path of conversion, what a great grace it is to find the Lord Jesus waiting patiently for us beside our senseless wells. When, like the Samaritan woman, we are tired of the things of this world, of almost empty wells, then the Divine Master is especially close to us. He asks us to give him something to drink, he asks us to trust Him to satiate our heart and if we trust in Him, we discover the joy of finding the true well, the source of crystal-clear water.

BOOK OF THE MONTHThe Screwtape Letters by C.S Lewis

Is a classic masterpiece of religious satire that entertains readers with its sly and ironic portrayal of human life and foibles from the vantage point of Screwtape, a highly placed assistant to "Our Father Below."
