It's Not Too Early to Start Thinking About Lent

1) Put food back in its Place 2)

Minimalism

Continuing..

3) A person for each day: Write a list of 40 people that are in your life and offer one day of Lent for each. Perhaps, send them a message of encouragement; you never know what people are going through.

4) Give away real money: It could be anything – buying someone homeless a meal, taking a friend out to dinner, giving it in the collection plate, anything as long as you physically do it. It's easy to give using direct debiting but harder to let go of cash. Keep charity an active verb.

Lenten Food Drive

During Lent this year our parish is running a food drive for our local food bank, . With the cost of food rising, food banks are more in demand than ever before. Lent is a great time to be charitable and give to our neighbours in need. Donating couldn't be easier! Please consider bringing food items to mass with you. A donation bin will be located at the back of the church.

If we could please ask that you _____ include monetary donations in our weekly collection baskets, but hold any cash donations until the last week of Lent. At that time a secondary collection will be taken for the food bank.

Wisdom of the Saints

REMINDER* Next Saturday is March 1st. We will hold our 1st Saturday Devotions to Our Lady with Holy Mass at 8:00 am followed by the recitation of the Holy Rosary & Confessions.
