The Greatest Week of the Church Year

The week after Easter Sunday is known as Eastertide or the Easter season. It Spans fifty days, ending on Pentecost Sunday. The Easter Octave, which includes the eight days from Easter Sunday until the Second Sunday of Easter is a period of celebration and reflection on the resurrection of Jesus Christ. The Easter Octave gives us time to impress upon our souls the mysteries, joys and graces of the greatest feast of the Church. The number 8 symbolizes a “New Beginning” – just as Jesus rose from the dead on the “eighth day” (the day after the Sabbath), starting something new for all humanity. Typically the Glorious Mysteries of the rosary are prayed during this week.

From St Faustina’s Diary: entry 699

The Lord expressed His will with regard to this feast in His very first revelation to St. Faustina.

My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable Mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and a shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day are opened all the divine floodgates through which graces flow. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. Everything that exists has come from the very depths of My most tender mercy. Every soul in its relation to Me will contemplate My love and mercy throughout eternity. The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness. It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My mercy.

Wisdom of the Saints

“Your accumulated offenses do not surpass the multitude of God’s mercies: your wounds do not surpass the great Physician’s skill.”

----St Cyril of Jerusalem-----

Please join us in making reparation to The Holy Face of Jesus for the sins against the first 3 commandments, every Tuesday after the 7:30 pm mass at St Michael’s.

Monday is ELECTION DAY... Please Pray for our Country

Remember to Pray for the election of a Good and Holy Pope

O God, eternal shepherd, who govern your flock with unfailing care, grant in your boundless fatherly love a pastor for your Church who will please you by his holiness and to us show watchful care. Through Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.
