Volunteer Catechist Needed – First Communion & Reconciliation Program

St. Michael's Parish is seeking a faith-filled, enthusiastic volunteer to lead our First Communion and Reconciliation preparation program, starting September 2026. For the past two years, this vital ministry has been on pause due to the absence of a catechist. We are now prayerfully looking for someone who feels called to help our parish children grow in their relationship with Christ and prepare to receive the Sacraments of Reconciliation and First Holy Communion.

What's Involved:

Guiding children (typically age 7-8) through the sacramental prep program, helping coordinate the celebration of First Reconciliation and First Communion, collaborating with parish staff and parents.
Ideal Candidate: A practicing Catholic who loves working with children, Comfortable leading small groups (experience helpful but not required)

You will not be alone—we'll provide materials, and support every step of the way!

If you feel called to this beautiful ministry—or want to learn more—please contact:

Parish Office at (613) 256-3441
