FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

This day has various names, meanings, and traditions. The Presentation of the Lord is also known as the Purification of Mary, it's also known as the Meeting of the Lord in the Christian East and it's also the Feast of Candlemas, marking forty days after Christmas, the end of that liturgical season. The multiple names and meanings of today's Feast have given birth to varied cultural expressions. The biblical account of the Presentation is the source for the "two turtle doves" in the carol "The Twelve Days of Christmas," for the sword piercing Mary's Immaculate Heart in Catholic iconography, for the Fourth Joyful Mystery of the rosary, and for the Canticle prayed by all the world's priests and nuns every single night of their lives.

The Lord Jesus Christ, forty days after His birth, in keeping with the biblical significance of the number forty was presented in the temple in Jerusalem by His parents, Mary and Joseph. After the Presentation, Jesus would enter the temple again as a boy and later as an adult. He would refer to His own body as a temple which He would raise up in three days. Jesus's life was a continual self-gift to God the Father from the very beginning to the very end.

THE CHURCH IS ONE-Catechism of the Catholic Church

Unity from the Trinity (813)

The Church's unity comes from the undivided Trinity. Christ "reconciled all men to God by his cross" and restored the unity of all people. She is one because her soul is the Holy Spirit. "The Holy Spirit brings about the wonderful communion of the faithful" (Second Vatican Council). "There is one Father of the universe, one Lord of the universe, and also one Holy Spirit. There is also one virgin become mother, and I should like to call her 'Church'" (St. Clement of Alexandria).

Diversity within the Unity (814)

The Church also has a diversity of peoples, cultures, gifts, and offices and particular Churches with their own traditions. This rich diversity does not oppose Church unity. Yet, sin always threatens this oneness. St. Paul wrote, "Maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace" (Eph 4:3).

Three Bonds of Unity (815)

Besides charity, the Church has three important visible bonds of communion:

- 1. The profession of one faith
- 2. The common celebration of worship (especially through the sacraments)
- 3. Apostolic succession through Holy Orders

Entrusted to Peter and the Apostles (816)

This sole Church of Christ was entrusted to Peter and the other apostles. "This Church, constituted and organized as a society in the present world, subsists in the Catholic Church which is governed by the successor of Peter and by the bishops in communion with him" (Second Vatican Council). Only in the Catholic Church can the fullness of the means of salvation be obtained. To the apostolic college alone (with Peter as its head) did Our Lord entrust all the blessings of the New Covenant. All who belong to the People of God should be fully incorporated into this one Body of Christ (Second Vatican Council).
