July- Month of The Precious Blood

From the time of the Passion, when Christ poured out His blood for our salvation, the faithful have practiced devotion to the Most Precious Blood of Jesus. In the month of July, the Church honors the Precious Blood and encourages us in this devotion. The traditional feast day devoted to the Precious Blood of Jesus Christ is July 1st.

The devotion has its scriptural roots in numerous references from the New Testament. In Romans 5:9, we read of justification by His blood. In Hebrews 10:19, we read of our sanctification and consecration by the Precious Blood. In 1 John 1:7 we are told that it cleanses us from all sin.

***Please note:*** Fr. Chojna will be away Tuesday July 18- to Tuesday July 25 inclusive. There will not be week day Masses on those days. Fr. Robert Ryan will be presiding at the Saturday Vigil Mass and the Sunday Masses.

July 19-The feast day of St. Macrina the Younger . She was born into a family of saints during the year 327 in Cesarea. Her grandparents were martyrs. Her grandmother was St. Macrina the Elder. Her parents Basil the Elder and Emmelia are both saints. Macrina’s mother taught her to read and educated her. Macrina in turn taught her brothers to read. Her brothers were St. Basil and St. Gregory of Nyssa and St. Peter of Sebastea.

At the age of twelve, Macrina became engaged to marry. Her fiance died suddenly and she then decided to remain single. She helped her mother raise her brothers as well as helping her mother run the household. When Macrina’s father died, both Macrina and her mother consecrated themselves to a life of prayer and contemplation. St. Macrina died a peaceful death in 371 holding the crucifix which she always had near her.

July 22-The feast day of St. Mary Magdalene .She is the patron of penitent sinners. Mary Magdalene is well known from the gospel account of Jesus casting out seven demons from her.(Luke 8:2) She experienced great sorrow for her sins and became a devoted follower of Christ. Because of her sorrow, she anointed Christ with her tears and dried His feet with her hair. Mary Magdalene is present at many of the important times in the life of Jesus. Mary Magdalene was one of the women present at the time of His crucifixion. She is the one who discovered His body missing from the tomb. She is honored by being the first person Christ appeared to after His Resurrection.
